

Interim UKIP Party Chairman

At the NEC meeting held on Monday, it was agreed that I should take on the role of Interim Party Chairman.

As you will know this is an appointment at the behest of the Interim Party Leader Gerrard Batten MEP. I have a great of respect for Gerrard and am humbled to be chosen by him to take on the role.

I feel very strongly that UKIP still has an important role to play in the political climate of today, particularly with the members of both the Labour and Conservative parties doing their very best to water down the referendum result of June 2016 as we near the date to Leave the European Union.

I have been a member of the party since 2006 and have been Chairman of UKIP South West for the past 5 years. I am looking forward to working with the NEC and the Regional Chairmen to stabilise the party after the unfortunate events of the past few months.

Where there is a will there is a way.
